

Another day, another breathtakingly corrupt Supreme Court decision in the Hobby Lobby case. Now they say that corporations, the most amoral legal fictions ever contrived, can impose on their employees the religious dogma of their owners.

We call for the immediate impeachment of the 5 legal hacks posing as Supreme Court justices on our highest court.

All this just further underlines the urgency of immediately launching a constitutional amendment that speaks the truth that corporations are NOT people, and that money is NOT speech.